MUTINOUS OUTBREAK

Russian Sailors Shell the Port of Vladivostok.

KILLED THEIR COMMANDER

Batteries Ashore Answered the Fire, Killing Mutineers and Destroying Their Vessel—One Woman Took a Part in Mutiny.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 2.—According to the official report of the recent mutinous outbreaks of sailors at Vladivostok the crews of three torpedo boat destroyers, the Skory, Serdity and Trevotshny, mutinied, hoisted their flag and shelled the port, doing considerable damage to buildings and killing some soldiers and civilians.

The Skory, on board of which were revolutionary agitators, including one woman, took the lead in the mutiny, the crew rising at the instance of the agitators, killing the commander of the boat and wounding the other officers who were overpowered and confined below decks.

The fire of the rebellious torpedo boat destroyers was answered by the batteries ashore, and from the gunboat Manjour and the torpedo boat destroyers Grozovoy, Smely and several others.

They surrounded the Skory and poured a raking fire into her, which battered her to pieces, exploded her two boilers and caused fire to break out on board. Nearly all the mutineers of the Skory were killed on the vessel. The three or four survivors threw themselves into the sea.

The mutiny on board the Trevotshny was quelled by her own crew after six of the mutineers had been killed and six wounded.

General Count Unterburger, commanding the military district at the Amur, has arrived at Vladivostok and assumed charge of the situation.

The United States embassy here received a dispatch from the consul at Vladivostok that the American who was wounded during the bombardment of Vladivostok by the mutinous torpedo boat destroyers is Harry Niestert, an employee of the Pacific Commercial company, who, it is believed, was struck by a shell.

GOOD AS GOLD.

Business Men Endorse Clearing House Certificate Plan.

Atlanta, Nov. 2.—The immediate and enthusiastic endorsement by the business men of Atlanta of the emergency plan adopted by the clearing house banks to furnish a supplemental currency was no more than was to be expected.

The certificates are backed by the combined credit and resources of all the banks making up the Atlanta clearing house. They are as good as gold. Leading merchants posted notices that these certificates will be accepted as cash in all transactions.

The circulation of those certificates simply means that $2,000,000 additional currency will be turned loose in Atlanta. When the emergency demand for it ceases it will be retired.

The banks, following the lead of others in the larger cities throughout the country, are simply doing what the government failed to do for the business of the country. Their action has had an all-powerful influence in easing the situation.

$2,000,000 For Pay Rolls.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Nov. 2.—At a meeting of the Cincinnati clearing house association it was decided to meet the demands for pay roll purposes Friday and Saturday with currency as usual. The heavy demands for currency for this purpose come in the last two days of the week and it is estimated that $2,000,000 will be required.

Country Banks Limit Withdrawals.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 2.—Advices to the Banner from many points in Tennessee, North Alabama and Southern Kentucky show that country banks in those sections, as a general thing, are limiting withdrawals. The dispatches also state that the bankers have no fear of trouble.

GENTRY BROTHERS COMING.

These Famous Shows Will Appear in Gainesville on November 6.

All of Gainesville's little folk are looking forward to the coming of Gentry Brothers' Famous Shows, the biggest and best of all trained-animal exhibitions, which is announced to appear in this city next Wednesday afternoon and night. There are also hundreds of the larger children who are just as eager to see the circus.

Gentry Brothers' exhibition will be the only big show coming to Gainesville this year. Somehow or other, this city was overlooked by the circuses that have already toured Florida, and it remains for Gentry Brothers' show to get the crowds and the money.

Gentry Brothers are sending the largest of their four shows to Gainesville this year. It is not the little dog and pony show which the people of the South are accustomed to seeing, but a great trained-animal exhibition, augmented by two score of thrilling and sensational trapeze, acrobatic and juggling acts.

The acts by the trained Shetland ponies, dogs, elephants, monkeys, beasts of the jungle, sheep, cows, cats and even pigs, are easily features, but the performances of the famous Levine family of trapezists, the wonderful Flying Zereldas, the Imperial Troupe of Japanese tumblers, Marcel and Lennett, and the five juggling Normans are the ones that thrill.

The menagerie of Gentry Brothers' Famous Shows is the largest ever brought South. There are elephants, camels, monkeys, zebras, all of the wild and ferocious beasts of the jungle, Shetland ponies, dogs, sheep, cows, cats, pigs—all trained and "educated." There is not an animal with the show that does not perform.

The show will parade the streets of Gainesville next Wednesday morning.

SEA ISLAND COTTON.

Savannah Market Quiet and Prices Considerably Lower.

Savannah, Ga., November 2.—The market for Sea Island ruled dull and easy most of the week, and prices are lower. The demand was chiefly for choice. Stocks of extra choice and full extra choice are rather large and pressed for sale, but those grades were somewhat neglected. The financial troubles North hampered the market by making it difficult for Northern spinners to finance their purchases, and most of the business was for foreign account. Lower exchange necessitated reduction of limits, and consequently fancy, although very scarce, was also lower. The quality of the receipts shows an improvement. The market was somewhat shadier at the close.

There were no new developments on the crop, and reports of disappointing results are still being received, and there is much disposition to hold.

The following prices are based on factors' quotations:

Ex. fancy Fla's or Ga's	30 @30½
Fancy Floridas	29
Fancy Georgias	29
Ex. choice Ga's and Fla's	25
Choice Ga's and Fla's	22
Ex. fine Ga's and Fla's	20

Christian Endeavor.

The Second North Central District Christian Endeavor convention convenes at North Gainesville Hall Nov. 7-8. This district is composed of Columbia, Bradford, Alachua and Levy counties. A good delegation from all C. E. Societies in these counties is expected.

Rev. Jas. F. Winnard of Tampa, State union president, and Rev. Clarence Ferran of Lake City will be guests of Mr. Henry Ramsey. Miss Grace A. Townsend of Interlachen, State union secretary, and Second Vice President Miss Emma Yerkes Hughes and mother will be guests of Mrs. H. W. Bruce.

FEAR OF LYNCHING NEGRO BROUGHT HERE

Bisbee DeSue Alleged to Have Shot White Man Near Starke.

WHEN PEOPLE WERE INFORMED

Excitement Ran High, and It Was Thought Best for the Safety of the Negro to Bring Him to Gainesville. Victim Well Known Young Man.

Bisbee DeSue, a well-known negro of Bradford county, is in the Alachua county jail, charged with a serious crime, and it became necessary for the authorities to bring him to Gainesville Thursday night in order to prevent a lynching in Bradford.

The man was brought to this city by Sheriff Langford, who placed him in prison here for safe keeping. DeSue will probably be kept here until the next session of the circuit court for Bradford county, which will be in the spring of next year, as the fall term of the court for that county is just coming to a close.

The Starke Telegraph of Friday has the following account of the charge for which DeSue is held:

"Wednesday evening Jesse Reddish, who lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Reddish, about seven miles north of Starke, came home from Raiford, where he had been to sell a load of cotton. After putting up his team he went to a pasture some distance from the residence to catch a saddle horse. Leading the horse homeward he came up with two colored men, Bisbee and Rollis DeSue, and the three went along in company. Reddish had been drinking and the negroes bantered him for some liquor, which he presently gave them. Having arrived at his home Reddish put the horse in the lot and the negroes prepared to go to their home, about one and a half miles from the Reddish place. Reddish then said that if they would saddle his horse while he went into the house he would go along with them a piece. This they promised to do, but when Reddish came out again the negroes were gone without having saddled the animal. This displeased Reddish, and he mounted the horse and went over to the DeSue place. Arriving there he called for Bisbee DeSue, who came out. Reddish upbraided DeSue for not saddling the horse, as he had told him to do. DeSue answered him in disrespectful language, and soon the two and Rollis DeSue were in a hot dispute. Bisbee DeSue then drew a revolver and shot at Reddish. The bullet took effect just below the chest. Reddish then fired twice at DeSue, but without hitting him, as the latter was running away.

"Reddish then left the place, going by his horse without mounting, and after having gone a short distance he lay down on the ground. Feeling cold and weak he soon rose up again and went to the home of Jack Green, near by. Arriving there he was in a very bad plight. He told Green what had happened and the latter sent word to Reddish's people. Members of the family having arrived on the scene, Sheriff Langford was sent for to arrest Bisbee DeSue, and Dr. N. W. Francis was also sent for. When the doctor arrived he found that the wound was of a serious nature and advised that the patient be taken to Starke, where he could receive careful medical attention. Raiford Reddish, the wounded man's brother, hastened to Starke for a conveyance and on his return the patient was brought to the home of Mrs. Raiford Alvarez, in this city, where he now lies in a critical condition.

"Drs. Francis and Gunter probed the wound early Thursday morning. It was found that the bullet had penetrated the liver and had lodged in the back, but the physicians were unable to extract it.

"Sheriff Langford, accompanied by J. S. Wills and Arthur Alvarez, went to the DeSue place Wednesday night and found Bisbee DeSue at home and arrested him. Bisbee is a son of the late Martin DeSue, who was killed by unknown parties some time ago. He is in the county jail awaiting developments. He has made the statement that Jesse Reddish fired at him five times and that he (Bisbee DeSue) did not shoot at all and does not know how Reddish happened to be wounded.

"Feeling against the negro was high in town Thursday and when Judge Wills was appraised of the state of public sentiment he instructed Sheriff Langford to transfer DeSue to the county jail at Gainesville. Accordingly Sheriff Langford left with the prisoner for Gainesville by the 5 o'clock train Thursday afternoon. Few people in town knew of the transfer until the train was well on its way to Gainesville."

WORK PROGRESSING NICELY.

Superviser Emerson Has Constructed Already a Half-Mile of Road.

Superviser Jesse R. Emerson, who is constructing the new road towards Newberry, came to the city Saturday and reported fine progress, stating that already more than a half-mile of road had been constructed, with the prospects for better work next week ahead.

Mr. Emerson states that the material used on this road has a most peculiar formation in pit, but that it works out admirably, and will serve the purpose all right. The clay is of a very tough, subsistent nature, and is bound to make a road which will prove of lasting qualities, although in continued inclement weather it may prove rather hard on teams. He does not know this, however, but from the nature of the material he thinks such conditions may be possible.

Superviser Emerson has a good force engaged on this work, and it is possible to do a good job.

RAILROAD SHOPS REOPENED.

Men at High Springs Shops Returned to Work on November 1.

A few days ago the railroad shops of the Atlantic Coast Line in High Springs, which are the largest in the State, closed down, owing, it is said, to the fact that the appropriation for operating expenses of these shops had been exhausted.

By this action more than a hundred machinists were thrown out of employment, many of whom declared that they would leave their benches and seek employment elsewhere. However, the shops reopened on Friday, November 1, as promised, and Foreman James Day, who was in Gainesville Saturday, stated that work was resumed without inconvenience, the greater number of the men having reported for duty.

The railroad shop is the mainstay of High Springs, employing a great deal of skilled help. The people of that town are naturally glad to see operations resumed there.

MELROSE MENTION.

Melrose, Nov. 2.—Frank and Ratley Yearwood of the Gainesville University rode over on their wheels on Friday and visited their parents. They made very good time considering the bad roads.

Miss M. Barnett and her two brothers, Harry and Craig, came over from Hawthorn and spent Sunday with friends.

Rev. W. Julian left Wednesday for Jacksonville to attend the meeting of the Southern Synod of the Lutheran Church.

J. Mann and family are moving from Earleton to the Whiting place, east of town, and W. W. Wilkes and family will occupy the Hilton cottage for the winter.

Halloween was duly observed by the young people playing pranks on their friends. It is greatly to their credit that only harmless jokes were played.

C. P. Huffman, H. Sutton and F. H. Sutton have returned from attendance in court at Green Cove Springs.

REPORTS OVERDRAWN

Not 15,000, But 200 Killed in Disaster at Karatagh.

PERISHED UNDER LANDSLIDE

No Building in the Town Was Left Standing, All Being Leveled to Their Foundations—Relief Measures for Sufferers.

New Bokhara, Turkestan, Nov. 2.—The first reports of the disaster at Karatagh were exaggerated. Instead of 15,000 persons having perished only about 200 lives were lost.

Most of these perished in the landslide which buried several houses of the town.

Karatagh is situated in a natural amphitheater, among the Karatagh mountains, it on one side and a river on the other. At the height of the recent earthquake, a great portion of the mountain broke away and fell upon the town.

Houses there were already falling on all sides from the violence of the earthquakes, and many of the helpless inhabitants, unable to escape through the narrow streets, which were covered by debris, were caught and buried.

No building in the town was left standing, the earthquake leveling them all to their foundations.

All the survivors were without shelter, and a relief expedition with supplies has left New Bokahara for the scene of the disaster.

TWO DEAD, ONE MAY DIE.

Domestic Troubles Lead to a Triple Tragedy at Memphis.

Memphis, Nov. 2.—As a termination of the domestic troubles in the household of J. B. Rutherford, two persons are dead and a third is dying as the result of wounds inflicted by Rutherford after a quarrel with his wife.

Rutherford, who came to Memphis about five years ago from Covington, Tenn., and his wife had been in divorce proceedings. Both Rutherford and Mrs. Rutherford were in poor health.

Late Thursday evening Rutherford, who, it is stated, had been drinking, went to the home of his wife, where his wife had apartments. He endeavored to obtain her will in the divorce proceedings and to effect a reconciliation.

Failing in his efforts, it is said, he was about to attack his wife when Eugene H. Peete, a former friend and at one time a political friend of Tipton county, Tenn., rushed into the room. Peete had already drawn weapon, and the apparently half crazed man fired the bullet going toward Peete, resulting in Peete's almost instant death. The second bullet was fired at the retreating form of a daughter of Peete's but was without effect.

Turning to his wife Rutherford again fired, mortally wounding her and then placing the weapon to his own head fired for the fourth time, ending another life and the life of Mrs. Rutherford was immediately removed to a hospital, but no hope is entertained for her recovery.

Halloween Revelers In Court.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 2.—Nearly two hundred persons, a great many of them women, were given a hearing Friday in the several police courts as a result of celebrating Halloween Thursday night. The charges were disorderly conduct, drunkenness, violating a city ordinance and similar character. Two fines imposed by police magistrates were from $5 to $10 or 10 days in jail.

Bank Closed, But Solvent.

Portsmouth, Va., Nov. 2.—The People's Bank of Portsmouth, with a capitalization of $50,000, failed to open Friday owing to a heavy drain by depositors and inability to realize needed cash on its assets. The bank is declared to be entirely solvent and an effort is being made to raise sufficient cash for its reopening soon.

BETTIE ROBERSON MET AWFUL DEATH

Burnt to a Crisp Without Anyone Around to Assist Her.

BODY WAS BADLY CHARRED

Brother and Children Were in Field at Work, and When One Child Came to Dinner Discovered Woman in Yard—Stocking Was Still Smoking.

From Friday's Daily Sun:

Information has just been received here of the horrible death of Bettie Roberson, colored, fifty-five years of age, which occurred at the home of her brother, Charles Simmons, near Gordon, where she has been making her home for the past few years. The death was caused by the woman's clothing becoming ignited, and her body was burned to a crisp before aid had ever reached her.

The woman, who was a widow with several children, was living with her brother, Charles Simmons, a progressive colored farmer of that section. As is the custom, Simmons, with his children and the children of the victim, ate breakfast and went to the field to work, leaving the woman to attend to the household duties. When one of the children left the field to go to dinner he discovered the woman laying in the yard burned to a crisp, one of her stockings still smoking.

No particulars of this awful incident could be learned, as there was no one present when it occurred. The woman, however, was subject to epileptic fits, and it is supposed that in some way her clothing became ignited, when she ran into the yard, became excited, and fell into a fit before she could cry for assistance.

The body was terribly charred, but the coroner did not deem it necessary to hold an inquest after the particulars had been learned.

The unfortunate woman was buried Wednesday afternoon.

AS OTHERS THINK

Everyone in Gainesville Has a Right to His Own Opinion.

While everyone has a right to his own opinion, yet it is wise to always consider what others think and profit by their experience.

Nothing makes life so miserable, or interferes so widely with the usefulness of the average American, as indigestion, and it is well for us to give fair consideration to what others think about this remarkable affliction.

J. W. McCollum & Co. are positive that in Mi-o-na stomach tablets they have an absolute cure for indigestion and the many disagreeable symptoms that follow this disease, such as distress after eating, coated tongue, bad taste in the mouth, dizziness, flatulence, nervousness and debility.

Their action in selling Mi-o-na on a guarantee to refund the money unless it cures, shows plainly their belief in the value of this remedy. They take all the risk, and there will be no charge whatever for Mi-o-na unless you are satisfied that it has relieved you of indigestion.

A Hallowe'en Party.

The Epworth League of the First Methodist church gave a most delightful Hallowe'en party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hill, 208 East Church street, Thursday evening which was largely attended, and it is needless to add greatly enjoyed.

The evening was passed in a most enjoyable manner, and the occasion will long be remembered by those who were so fortunate as to be present.

COMFORTING WORDS

Many a Florida Household Will Find Them So.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed; to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. To tell how this great change can be brought about will prove comforting words to hundreds of Florida readers.

A. Oerting, seaman, of 419 L. street, Pensacola, Fla., tells how to do it. He says: "From my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills I can strongly recommend them to anyone in need of a good medicine for the kidneys. Kidney complaint and backache caused me suffering at intervals for years. The first or second attack I did not mind, but as time went by they grew worse and at times laid me up. I could hardly walk and it was a difficult matter to straighten up after stooping, while the kidney secretions were irregular and unnatural. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me. From personal experience I know that this remedy can be depended upon to fulfill the representations made for it."

HUNTING SEASON OPENED.

Many Gainesville People Took Advantage of First Opportunity.

Friday, November 1, ushered in the season for hunting of quail as provided by law, with the result that the woods were full of sportsmen, and many an unfortunate bird fell under the perfect aim of "the man behind the gun."

For the past few days the sportsmen of this city have been cleaning up their faithful fire-pieces, and even as early as Thursday several of them left for the woods on a camp, preparing to get down to business at dawn on the following day.

Those in a position to know state that quail will not be as plentiful in this section the present season as in former years. There seems to be no special reason for this, but the fact of the scarcity is evident.

DEATH OF MR. T. S. ROGERS.

Brother of Rev. S. B. Rogers Dies in Tennessee.

The sad intelligence was received in this city Friday of the death of Mr. T. S. Rogers, brother of Rev. S. B. Rogers, pastor of the First Baptist church of this city, which occurred in Greeneville, Tenn., at 11 o'clock a. m. in the forty-third year of his age. Deceased was operated upon ten days ago for gall-stone, but the operation was delayed too long to have the desired effect.

Dr. Rogers was not feeling sufficiently well to go to Tennessee to attend the funeral, which he deeply regrets. He has the deepest sympathy of the entire people of Gainesville in his sad bereavement.

Biliousness and Constipation.

For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been today had I not tried Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, helping the system to do its work naturally.—Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala. These tablets are for sale by all druggists.

Alachua Business Change.

There was an important business change in Alachua Thursday night, Bishop & Bishop, druggists, having disposed of their stock of drugs, sundries, etc., to Berry Bros., two progressive young men of South Florida.

The Bishop drug store was a fixture in Alachua, being one of the oldest established places in the town. The business has always been a prosperous one, but the Doctors Bishop were desirous of disposing of same in order that they might give their professional practice more attention.

CITY TAX COLLECTIONS.

Books Are Now Open, and Collector Ellis Had a Big Day Friday.

Notwithstanding that Friday was the first day in which the people of Gainesville had an opportunity to pay their city taxes, Collector Ellis reports a fine day, having collected about $1,200 on the property assessed in the city. If he can keep this up for the next few weeks he will come very near cleaning up the record.

The assessment this year is considerably increased over that of the year previous. The assessed valuation of taxes for 1906 was $985,154, while for the present year it was increased to $1,014,273.

Collector Ellis is now ready to receive all taxes, and urgently requests those indebted to the city to call and settle the same.

JUSTICE COLMAN'S COURT.

Two Offenders of Liquor Law Held in $1,000 Bail Each.

Because Louis Davis and John Bullock, charged with selling liquor in a dry county, were unable to give bond of $1,000 each in the court of Justice Colman Friday, they were remanded to jail to await the action of the grand jury at the fall term of the circuit court, which will convene in this city on the 11th inst.

These are the last two of the "bunch" of six who were arrested in the West End a few days ago, the cases of the first four having been disposed of Thursday.

Cured of Bright's Disease.

Mr. Robert O. Burke, Elnora, N. Y., writes: "Before I started to use Foley's Kidney Cure I had to get up from twelve to twenty times a night, and I was all bloated up with dropsy and my eyesight was so impaired I could scarcely see one of my family across the room. I had given up hope of living, when a friend recommended Foley's Kidney Cure. One 50-cent bottle worked wonders and before I had taken the third bottle the dropsy had gone, as well as all other symptoms of Bright's disease. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Snake in Bunch of Celery.

Atlanta, Nov. 1—A snake, three inches in length, with yellow and red stripes, wriggling and curling at the same time, was found in a bunch of celery Wednesday at dinner by Mrs. J. Hardie. The appearance of the small-dimensioned reptile created quite a stir, it is almost useless to say.

LEGISLATURE CAN MAKE STATE DRY

John S. Beard Says Constitutional Amendment Is Not Necessary.

VERY STARTLING STATEMENT

Pensacola Lawyer Says That if Governor Calls a Special Session of the Legislature and Specifies Prohibition Then State Law Can be Enacted.

If Hon. John S. Beard's construction of the State constitution is correct, no constitutional amendment is required to enable the Legislature to pass a State prohibition law and a special session of the Legislature, if one is called, can pass a law prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors in the State of Florida. Mr. Beard's opinion to The Pensacola Journal is as follows:

"Replying to your inquiry of recent date, I have as you requested, carefully considered the question as to whether an amendment to the constitution is necessary in order to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors in the State of Florida.

"I unhesitatingly express the opinion that the Legislature has full, ample and complete power to pass a prohibition law under the constitution as it now stands.

"The people of a State, in creating the Legislative Department, delegates to it the whole mass of legislative power, subject to such restrictions as are enumerated in the State constitution and of course, subject to the limitations which are contained in the Federal constitution.

"In order to determine if a State Legislature has the power to pass a law upon a given subject, we look to the constitution to see if it is inhibited and if not inhibited the Legislature has the power.

"On the other hand, in order to determine if Congress has the power to legislate upon a given subject, we look to the Federal constitution to see if the power is delegated, and if not delegated Congress has not the power. The difference between the powers of a State Legislature and the powers of Congress is the difference between the powers of a legislative body created by a social compact and the powers of a legislative body created by a Federal compact.

Constitution Permits Legislation.

"The constitution of the State of Florida places no limitation or restriction upon the power of the Legislature to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquor in the State. I take the true and meaning of article 19 to be as follows, viz: That as the sale of intoxicating liquors is legal in the absence of State prohibition, article 19 permits any county upon complying with the conditions specified in the article to prohibit the sale of liquors therein.

"Without article 19 no local county prohibition or State prohibition. Article 19 is not a county prohibition or State prohibition in any way a limitation or restriction upon the power of the Legislature to establish State prohibition. Article 19 permits local prohibition in the absence of State prohibition, the converse is true, that is, State prohibition will permit the local or county prohibition of intoxicating liquors.

Would Hold It Good.

"I do not say that the Governor may convene the Legislature in extraordinary session, and in the proclamation specify State prohibition as one of the purposes for which the Legislature is convened, or, after the Legislature is convened, he directs the attention of the Legislature to this subject, and a State prohibition law is passed and I am firmly of the opinion that the courts will sustain the constitutionality of such a law.

"The Governor neither can nor should in his proclamation convening the Legislature limit the action of the Legislature after it is convened, then the matter can be taken up, except at the discretion of each house. So to a great extent, it depends upon the Governor whether the Legislature will consider the question at the extraordinary session.

When Take Effect.

"I have no doubts but that the courts will sustain a State prohibition statute as constitutional. If, however, they held it unconstitutional, the Legislature, at its regular session in 1909, could propose the necessary amendment to the constitution.

"I will also say that a prohibition law, if passed, should not go into effect before October 1, 1908. Licenses have been taken out in the 'wet' counties for the year ending October 1, 1908, and it would be unfair and unjust to enforce the law before that date; but, of course, local prohibition, where now in force, would remain so until State prohibition goes into effect. JOHN S. BEARD."

Help! Help! I'm Falling

Thus cried the hair. And a kind neighbor came to the rescue with a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor. The hair was saved! This was because Ayer's Hair Vigor is a regular hair medicine. Falling hair is caused by a germ, and this medicine completely destroys these germs. Then the healthy scalp gives rich, healthy hair.

MATT PAYS THE FIDDLER.

Man Alleged to Have Shot at Another Must Stand Consequences.

From Friday's Daily Sun:

Matt Milliner, the negro whom it is alleged shot at another man on West Church street Monday night, mention of which appeared in The Sun, and who afterward escaped and made his way to Newberry, where he was arrested and brought back to Gainesville to answer to a charge of discharging firearms in the city limits, was on Tuesday morning fined $25 and costs.

The defendant gave bond and appealed the case, through his attorney, Evans Haile, but no sooner had he been released than he was rearrested by the county authorities and arraigned before Justice Colman upon a charge of carrying concealed weapons.

Milliner waived examination and gave bond for his appearance Tuesday, when the case will be heard.

LINGERING COLD

Withstood Other Treatment But Quickly Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"Last winter I caught a very severe cold which lingered for weeks," says J. Urquhart, of Zephyr, Ontario. "My cough was very dry and harsh. The local dealer recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and guaranteed it, so I gave it a trial. One small bottle of it cured me. I believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best I have ever used." This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

Will Go on Hunt.

From Saturday's Daily Sun.

Rev. W. C. Foster of Alachua passed through the city Friday en route to Rodman, Putnam county, where he will fill his regular appointment tomorrow.

Mr. Foster is a very enthusiastic sportsman, and, like his friend, President Roosevelt, wants to go after big game. As a result he has formed a congenial hunting party comprising Rev. J. B. Holley, formerly of this city but now of Augusta, Ga., Rev. R. L. Mother of Atlanta, and himself, and on Monday morning early they expect to proceed to the Okefenokee swamps in search of deer.

The party will be absent several days, and anticipate some fine sport.

Always Was Sick.

When a man says he always was sick—troubled with a cough that lasted all winter—what would you think if he should say he never was sick since using Ballard's Horehound Syrup? Such a man exists. Mr. J. C. Clark, Denver, Colorado, writes: "For years I was troubled with a severe cough that would last all winter This cough left me in a miserable condition. I tried Ballard's Horehound Syrup and have not had a sick day since. That's what it did for me." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

TWO WOMEN UP FOR SELLING BOOZE

First Time in History of County That They Were Implicated.

SIX OFFENDERS WERE UP

Ross Woman Placed Under Bond of $1,000, Which She Gave—Others Waived Examination and Remanded to Jail to Await Grand Jury.

From Friday's Daily Sun:

There was an interesting session of Justice Colman's court Thursday morning, when a sextette from the West End were arraigned upon a charge of selling liquor in a county which has voted against the sale of same.

What made the proceedings all the more interesting was the fact that two women figured in the case. It is a frequent occurrence to arraign a man for violation of this law in Alachua county, but this is the first instance recorded where a woman has been brought before the bar of justice charged with this greatest of all crimes of a civil nature.

The parties arraigned were the two women, Ireas Ross and Nancy Harris, John Bullock, Walter Harris, Steve Clayton and Louis Davis.

All parties were arrested at Newberry with the exception of Bullock, who was taken into custody at Trenton.

When the case was called the Ross woman waived examination and was placed under a bond of $1,000 for her appearance at the next session of the circuit court, which will be held this month. Steve Clayton, Walter and Nancy Harris, also waived examination and went to jail in default of bond, while the cases of Bullock and Davis were postponed until a later date.

IT MADE THEM TIRED.

Micanopy Squad of Guards Evidently Displeased With Encampment.

From Thursday's Daily Sun.

The Micanopy squad of the Gainesville Guards, which company returned from the annual encampment at Fort Pickens Tuesday night, left for their respective homes Wednesday, a tired-looking set.

If it is to be judged by the expression of several members of this squad, it is all up with them as far as voluntary military duty is concerned in future. They declare that they were never worked harder or given less liberty in their lives, and they do not propose to go through the same ordeal again. No liberties of consequence were extended them, they say, and it was nothing but drill and work from sunrise to sunset, with occasional after-sunset duties.

The Micanopy squad comprises Sergeant S. Chamberlin, Privates Will Burch, Wm. Prince, Corrie Hester, Elvin Bruton, Mack Adams, Calvin Stevenson, Norman McCredie and Milton Dunning.

Notwithstanding that the boys were tired out, they were in good spirits, but each declared he would be glad to get back home.

A Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home for seven years, and it has always proved to be a reliable remedy. We have found that it would do more than the manufacturers claim for it. It is especially good for croup and whooping cough.—Rev. James A. Lewis, Pastor Hillsboro, Miss., M. E. Church. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is sold by all druggists.

A Fine Dog.

Col. L. E. Webster, who is a great fancier of dogs, is happy over the recent of a fine English Gotch pup, six months old, from a friend in Vermont. The parents of this pup were awarded the first prize at the Vermont Valley Fair, Brattleboro, in September of the present year, and were admired by the thousands of dog fanciers who attended this fair. Col. Webster is naturally proud of his new possession.

W. T. Jackson of Waldburg Lake, who owns a handsome home and grove, was in the city yesterday on business. The good people of Orlando have organized a Law and Order League, the principal object of which is to ferret out the "blind tigers" which it is feared will infest Orange county since the prohibition of the sale of liquor.

In railroading there now seems to be a difference between the old plan to charge "all the traffic will bear," and the new plan of charging only "what the public will bear," and this improvement is only due to State laws and not National legislation.

Editor Appleyard of The Lake City Index is working for the establishing of a cotton factory in that town. If he succeeds he will have accomplished more for the industrial welfare of Lake City than any man has accomplished in the past. Success to you, brother.

The Jacksonville saloon men are reported to be very uneasy regarding the result of the approaching wet and dry election in Duval county. Some of them concede that the county will go dry, and are pleading for time in which to arrange their business affairs. As The Sun remarked prior to the election in Escambia county, when Duval county votes dry saloon men will be fools to take out license to sell liquor in the State.

It is said that an evil tongue has a certain amount of influence, but, like a cat, only with certain persons. Persons of liberal views never permit it to influence their opinions. A woman's tongue is barbed wire, and it scratches its victim unmercifully. If a person has the forbearance to withstand the cruel thrust, to bide his time, there seems to be a special dispensation from some unseen power which smoothes out this tangle of falsehood and gossip, leaving the victim unscathed. Not so with the scars of the deep wounds inflicted.

Many years ago the North American Indians tied their captives to trees and amused themselves by throwing tomahawks and shooting arrows at them, not for the purpose of killing outright but seeing how near they could miss. That was considered fine sport. The other evening in this city the members of one Sunday school class caught twenty members of another class, stripped them of their outer clothing, tied them to trees, threw water over them and left them there all night in an almost freezing temperature. That is called college fun. The difference between savagery and fun, it seems, is whether they do it or we do it.—Savannah News.

BRYAN AND ROOSEVELT.

Some of the great newspapers of our day, such, for instance, as The Washington Post, The New York Times, and The Philadelphia Press, are trying very hard to mix up Roosevelt and Bryan. It looks as if these papers were booming Bryan in the interest of another nomination for Roosevelt.

The Press thinks that Mr. Bryan will be nominated, that he is no ordinary man, and that no Republican but Roosevelt could defeat him. The Times is of the same opinion. The Post says: "Take the tariff out, and what is the difference between Mr. Bryan and Mr. Roosevelt?" and again: "If Mr. Bryan were President, wherein would he reverse the policies of Mr. Roosevelt?"

Now, there is as much or more difference between Mr. Bryan and Mr. Roosevelt as there was between Jefferson and Hamilton. Bryan is opposed to the "big stick" policy of Roosevelt; and this constitutes a radical difference. Bryan is opposed to Roosevelt's ideas of granting immunity to criminal individuals who, like Paul Morton, do the dirty work of the corporations; while Roosevelt is the parent and defender of that policy. Here is another radical difference: Bryan believes in the principles of the Declaration of Independence and all the principles of Jefferson, while Roosevelt despises and denounces those principles. On all fundamental principles they are so far apart as the poles. Their differences are irreconcilable. Bryan believes as Jackson and Taney believed respecting the dangers and evils of the banking system, while Roosevelt favors to the utmost the greatest of the National banks, and the whole system of concentrating and aiding the money power.

Bryan opposes the subsidizing of ship-owners, while Roosevelt favors it. Bryan is opposed to Government by injunction, but Roosevelt favors it. No two men were ever more completely and universally opposed in theory or in practice. Yet we hear of Roosevelt-Democrats and Bryan Republicans; and we find Roosevelt's supporters trying to create the impression that he is pursuing Bryan's theories. The silly subterfuge is well financed, but it will not work.

SAVE THIS ANYWAY.

Put It in Some Safe Place, for it May Come in Handy Some Day.

Here is a simple home-made mixture as given by an eminent authority on Kidney diseases, who makes the statement in a New York daily newspaper, that it will relieve almost any case of Kidney trouble if taken before the stage of Bright's disease. He states that such symptoms as lame back, pain in the side, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night; painful and discolored urination are readily overcome. Here is the recipe; try it:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Karavon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

A well-known druggist here in town is authority that these ingredients are all harmless and easily mixed at home by shaking well in a bottle. This mixture has a peculiar healing and soothing effect upon the entire Kidney and Urinary structure, and often overcomes the worst forms of Rheumatism in just a little while. This mixture is said to relieve all blood disorders and cure the Rheumatism by forcing the Kidneys to filter and strain from the blood and system all uric acid and foul, decomposed waste matter, which cause these afflictions. Try it if you aren't well. Save the prescription.

THE NEW LICENSE LAW.

The Pensacola correspondent of The Jacksonville Times-Union says if the interpretation of the State laws as placed by State Attorney J. Walter Kehoe is correct there will be no more shipments of liquors from Pensacola to the dry counties of this State. He holds that the last Legislature passed an act not only prohibiting the soliciting of business either by mail or otherwise, but also prohibited the shipment of liquors into the dry counties, and acting in his capacity of State attorney Mr. Kehoe proposes to see that those violating the law are prosecuted. Pensacola wholesale liquors dealers have been supplying the dry counties with liquor and the business has grown to immense proportions, but under the new law this must be stopped. In a statement issued this morning the State attorney said: "The Act of 1907 provides that no license shall authorize any person, dealer or agent to sell, accept or solicit orders for or deliver any spirituous, vinous or malt liquors in any county or voting precinct where the sale of such liquors is prohibited, and any person so doing shall, upon conviction be punished as for a sale of liquor without a license. This law is very broad in its terms and it is my opinion that a person, whether by word of mouth, by telephone message or by printed letter or circular, who solicits one in a dry precinct or a dry county to buy such liquors is violating the spirit and the letter of the law. The statute quoted also prohibits delivering in any county or precinct, and from reading the statute it would appear that any person, corporation or agent who delivers or causes to be delivered any such liquor in any prohibition territory would be liable to prosecution and conviction the same as if he were a regular dealer or seller of such liquors." If the construction of the law is correct liquor dealers in Pensacola will not even be allowed to deliver goods in certain sections of the city, as precinct No. 12 gave a majority for the "drys" and consequently goods can not be delivered there.

It would be interesting to know how the New York panic looked to James Hazen Hyde from the safe vantage ground of Paris.

OUR WASHINGTON NEWS LETTER

Wall Street Flurry Necessitated Government Aid to Banks.

PRESENT FINANCIAL SYSTEM

Will Require Immediate Attention of Congress—Government Interest in Balloon Races—Huge Task of Weighing the Mails Has Been Completed.

Special Correspondence The Daily Sun.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 29.—Naturally all interest the past week centered in the Treasury Department. The panic in New York forced Secretary of the Treasury Cortelyou to go to the scene of the trouble and the Government has come to the assistance of the market with immense deposits of funds. Just how extensive this help has been the Treasury will not say, but the estimate is that it amounts to $20,000,000 or $25,000,000. Nothing less than this would be of much use in the New York banks, and more than this would trench upon the available working funds of the Government. But it is said that this large amount could be spared without causing the Government any inconvenience. It is rather remarkable that Cortelyou went into office with the statement that he proposed to divorce the Treasury completely from Wall Street and that there would be no "accommodations" extended to the market when it was in distress. It so happened, perhaps it was made to so happen, that the Secretary has been in office less than a month when there was a bad flurry in the "Street," and he came to the front, just as other secretaries had done, with financial assistance. However, there was a rather clear understanding between the head of the department and the financial powers that this sort of help could not be depended on, and there has been a cessation of it for some months. The present crisis, however, is not an ordinary stock panic, but has struck some of the biggest savings institutions and is in danger of working greater hardship to the people who can least afford to suffer. So the assistance of the Government has been extended again, and probably will effectually tide over the crisis. This only makes it plainer, though the additional assurance was never needed, that our financial system is at fault and will have to be wholly regenerated. The Knickerbocker Trust Company and the other trust companies that have been hard hit in the money panic were institutions outside the association of "clearing house banks." There was no help extended to them when the crash came and they suffered accordingly. This will mean that the trust companies will have to get inside the circle of the clearing house banks when the crisis is over. It will also mean that they will be compelled to keep up their reserves to a higher point than they have been compelled to under the present law. It probably also will mean that there will be a closer Federal supervision of trust companies as well as banks. But most of all it will mean that the subject of currency reform will have to be seriously considered when Congress meets. This subject has been before Congress time and again, but it has always been put off till a more convenient season. If the bill that was before the last House had become a law and banks had been allowed to issue additional note circulation under a specifically higher tax, the trouble in New York need not have happened. It would seem that this elastic currency would do much in New York in the day of the worst pinch, as was shown by the fact that the call money sharks got in their work and call money was loaned at 70 and even 80 per cent. There was one pool of $100,000 formed in the Stock Exchange to loan at such rates. Of course bank circulation and call money are two different things, but a bank circulation that can be expanded in times of stress would do much to relieve the situation and make the other evil unnecessary.

The Government has been taking much more than a platonic interest in the balloon races at St. Louis. Gen. Allen of the Signal Corps went there to watch the performances of the airships and the small ballon corps of the Government were put at the disposal of the aeronauts to help them in making the occasion a success.

How great a success it was is shown by the fact that St. Louis went balloon mad and there was a crowd estimated at 300,000 to see the aeral racers get away. It was the greatest aero meet that has been held in this country if not in the world, and the aid that has been extended it by the Government shows how keenly the army is interested in aeral navigation. The performance of the long distance balloon racers was interesting of course, but the point in which the army is particularly interested is the performance of the dirigible balloons. Gen. Allen wants to build one of these for the Signal Service and at the coming session of Congress an appropriation of $100,000 is to be asked for the work. It will cost about $60,000 to build the ship and the remainder will be useful in accessories. This Government is the last of the great powers to enter the field of aerial navigation, but the strides that have been made abroad indicate that we cannot longer neglect this work.

The six months' period for the weighing of the mails has just about elapsed, and it was announced at the convention of postmasters held in Washington last week that the work has reached a satisfactory conclusion. The magnitude of the job will be appreciated when it is understood that every piece of mail carried in the United States has been weighed and its class tabulated. It was not known when this work started whether it could be carried out, but it has been done and there will be available for Congress when it meets such a complete lot of data on the subject of the mails as has ever before been available when it came to fixing the compensation to be given the railroads for transporting them.

The Pension Office has just reported a decrease of over 18,000 in the number of pensioners for the year. This is the greatest decrease in any one year since there has been a pension list. It makes the total number of pensioners 981,821, the smallest number since 1894. It will be a long time at this rate before the pension list is wiped out and before that time comes we probably will have gotten into some other war and helped to swell it again. But it at least shows that for the time being the movement is in the right direction.

A Reliable Remedy for Croup.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

HON. FRANK CLARK ON PROHIBITION

Delivered Eloquent Address In Jacksonville Tuesday Night.

EARNEST PLEA BUT NO ABUSE

Acknowledged to Be the Most Logical Argument in Favor Prohibition That Has Been Delivered During Agitation of Question in Duval County.

[Jacksonville Times-Union, Oct 30.]

Congressman Frank Clark was the speaker of honor at the prohibition meeting at the foot of Main street last night.

President Erwin of the prohibition league called the people assembled to order at 8 o'clock sharp, and referred to the honor Mr. Clark did Jacksonville in being present, and then introduced the Hon. A. H. King, who in turn introduced the distinguished speaker of the evening.

Congressman Clark was at his best and he held his audience in rapt attention from start to finish. He was both argumentative and witty and made the strongest plea for the prohibition of the liquor traffic ever made in this city. He gave his reasons for the stand he was taking, citing that that impelled him to the course. The speaker, among other things, said that he voted for prohibition in his county in Georgia twenty-five years ago, that he did the same thing in this State twenty years ago, and that he proposes to battle against the saloons wherever he found one as long as he might live.

He pleaded with the boys who were about to cast their first vote to cast it against the open saloon; he cited that the respectable man who could take a drink or let it alone was the most dangerous man in a community, and warned the young against their example; such men, he said, were usually called "judge" or "colonel" and as such were looked up to, not the object of common drunkard.

Into Politics.

Continuing, the speaker said he favored putting prohibition into politics to a certain extent, especially in municipalities and counties, when it came to making up the slate for the great conservators of the peace, such as mayors, police judges, sheriffs and so on.

Congressman Clark's arraignment of the saloons was drastic, but it was made in a kindly manner, without abuse, irony or invective. He contended that prohibition prohibited; that the only thing necessary for this end with a prohibitory law on the statute books, was the officers imbued with the right spirit and purpose; in support of his position he cited the fact that Polk county had been dry for the past twenty years, and that it would not be voted wet with a 5000 majority.

The speaker's address was frequently punctured with cheers, especially when he said that a move was on foot to introduce a bill in Congress at the coming session, to place Washington, the capital of the country, on the map, and with his right hand held high he said that as sure as the bill was introduced, and he believed it would be, it would become a law. The speaker was impressive and grandly eloquent when he touched this period. There was no excitement, either one way or the other, when each dissented from him, but there were said no sharply and with emphasis.

Congressman Clark's peroration was enthused with great fervor, and from the viewpoint of the prohibitionist could not be surpassed.

Women's Pains

"I was a total wreck," writes Mrs. Beulah Rowley, of Champoeg, Oregon, "from pains I had suffered, for 4 years, every month. Sometimes I would be unconscious for 12 hours at a stretch. I did not know that anything could stop the pain entirely, but Wine of Cardui did. I advise all women suffering with painful periods to use Cardui and be relieved."

It does this by regulating the functions and toning up all the Internal female organs to health. It is a pure, specific, reliable, female remedy, with a record of 70 years of success. It has benefited a million others. Why not you? Try it.

New White Fly Fungus

BY H. S. FAWCETT
FLORIDA AGRICULTURAL EXP. STATION

A new fungus that gives promise of being very effective in killing the larvae of the White Fly has recently been discovered. It was found by Prof. P. H. Rolfs in two different groves in the Sub-Peninsula. Attention was called to it from the fact that 70 to 90 per cent of the larvae in recently infested trees were found to be dead. This led to further investigation as to the cause of the mortality of the White Fly larvae, with the result that a fungus, not heretofore noticed, was found. On leaves sent in later from one of the same groves, almost every larvae had been killed. The same fungus was found to be present on White Fly larvae sent in on citrus leaves from the Manatee river region a few days later.

This new White Fly parasite, which may be called the "White Fringe" Fungus, appears to belong to a genus known chiefly as Microcera. It is related to the Red Headed fungus (Sphaerostible coccophilae) that is parasitic on San Jose Scale and on various citrus scale insects, but its general appearance is very different.

The White Fringe fungus is not at all conspicuous to the unaided eye, as are the Red, Yellow and Brown fungi, but under the hand lens it may be made out. It appears as a very delicate white fringe coming out from the margin of the larvae. If the leaves are picked and allowed to dry the fringe disappears. The dead larvae become white and papery, and later often present a very slight pinkish appearance.

Our experiments conducted at Gainesville, showed that in two weeks from the time the spores were introduced into white fly infested trees the fungus was very evident upon previously healthy white fly larvae. Additional experiments in the laboratory showed that the spores of the White Fringe fungus germinate much more quickly than those of either the Red or the Yellow fungus.

How far the use of this fungus will prove to be of practical value in controlling the White Fly is yet to be determined by further experiment on a larger scale. If however the fungus continues to be as active as it has recently shown itself to be, it will certainly prove of great value in further checking the ravages of this destructive pest.

Parents finding this fungus in parts of their groves can distribute it into portions of the grove in which the White Fly is partially healthy, by taking leaves containing larvae already infested with fungus, and placing them into trees where the larvae are not yet diseased. In doing this we would advise that the fungus containing surface of the detached leaves be pinned in contact with the healthy larvae of the others.
